Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of accounting policies of The Matthew Larson Foundation for Pediatric Brain Tumors / aka IronMatt (the Foundation) is presented to assist in understanding the entity's financial statements. As a result of conflicts with another foundation, during the year ended March 31, 2011, the Foundation was required to change its name from "The Matthew Larson Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation" to "The Matthew Larson Foundation for Pediatric Brain Tumors".

Nature of Activities

The Matthew Larson Foundation for Pediatric Brain Tumors, also known as IronMatt, was created by the family and friends of 7 year old Matthew James Larson, who lost a 5 year battle with brain and spinal tumors in April 2007. The Foundation was formed as a New York not-for-profit corporation on March 23, 2007. The mission of the Foundation is to raise awareness and funds to overcome pediatric brain tumors and to help the children and families affected by it. The Foundation is supported primarily by fund-raising events and donor contributions. The attendees and contributors are individuals and businesses located mainly in the New Jersey-New York metropolitan area.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and, accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables and other liabilities.

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The Foundation reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. The Foundation does not have any temporarily restricted net assets or permanently restricted net assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Contributions Receivable and Allowance for Uncollected Amounts

Contributions are recorded at fair value when made by donors. The Foundation has not recorded an allowance for uncollectible amounts because it is immaterial. All of the Foundation's contributions receivable are due within one year. There are no significant concentrations of credit risk associated with the Foundation's contributions receivable.

Contributed Services

For the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, no amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for contributed services because the value of these services cannot be practically determined. The Foundation generally pays for services requiring specific expertise. However, many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks that assist the Foundation in fund-raising activities, obtaining contributions and maintaining its mission including the officers, executive committee, board of directors and advisory committee.

Investments

The Foundation maintains an investment account with Fidelity Investments. Management has invested the funds at Fidelity in short-term cash reserves, that are classified as cash equivalents as further described in Note 2, and marketable securities, including bank certificates of deposit, U.S. government bonds, mutual funds and equities. The value of these marketable securities are subject to market fluctuations. The fair market value of marketable securities was $3,149,148 at March 31, 2016 with a cost of $2,780,599 and a fair market value of $3,502,857 at March 31, 2015 with a cost of $2,987,030. The securities are reported at fair market value, as described in Note 5, and the unrealized gain or loss is included in the change in net assets in the statement of activities.

Income Tax Status

The Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Foundation qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). As such, contributions to the Foundation are tax deductible by donors to the extent provided under the Code.

Research Grants

The Matthew Larson Foundation for Pediatric Brain Tumors seeks to fund cutting-edge research to ultimately find a cure for pediatric brain tumors. The Foundation also supports investigators looking into ways to lessen the negative effects that treatment, including surgery, chemotherapy and radiation have on a child's growing brain. Using a competitive application and review process, a medical advisory committee, composed of doctors from prominent research hospitals nationwide, guides the Foundation in determining the scientific merit of the medical grants.

For the year ended March 31, 2016, four grants totaling $300,000 were awarded to:

- 1) $75,000 grant to Haotian Zhao, MD PhD from Sanford Research, Sioux Falls, SD

- 4) $75,000 grant to Richard C. H. Ting, PhD from Weill Cornell Medical College, New York, NY

Sponsorships

The Foundation increases awareness of pediatric brain tumors through participation in associations and sponsorships of symposiums. The Foundation collaborated with leading nonprofit organizations to establish Childhood Cancer Charities United (3CU) to work together to raise awareness and advance research in an effort to find a cure of childhood cancers. The Foundation co-sponsors symposiums that bring together health care professionals from around the world to present current trends in care, management and treatment of patients with central nervous systems tumors. This provides a platform at which new information and results can be shared and new collaborations can be established.

Family Assistance

The Foundation provides family assistance to qualified families in need who have a child undergoing treatment for Brain or Central Nervous System (CNS) cancer. Hardships associated with having a child diagnosed with a cancer include increased expenses as they experience difficult treatments or extended hospitalization.
